

A weekend at Watershed with Paula Winokur – June 13-15

Spend an intimate weekend in the Watershed Studios with renowned ceramic artist Paula Winokur. She will introduce you to her working methods in porcelain and the various ways an artist thinks and works with clay.

Participants will have the opportunity, if they wish, to experiment with porcelain through a series of clay exercises, including hand building techniques and an introduction to wheel throwing. This will be a small, personal setting with an emphasis on each individual's interest. The weekend includes a slide presentation and discussions around current trends in ceramics.

June 13 Friday evening: 5:30-8:00 pm - dinner, slides and discussion at Watershed.
June 14- 15 Saturday and Sunday 9:30- 4pm - in the Watershed Studios
Saturday Night: Dinner with Paula at a wonderful MidCoast restaurant.

Weekend: $550/per person. Limit 6 participants.

Accommodations and Travel costs not included.(Watershed will provide a complete packet with information on accommodations, directions, maps etc)

For more information, or to register please contact:

Tyler Gulden, Interim Executive Director

19 Brick Hill Rd.

Newcastle, ME 04553

207 -882-6075

director@watershedceramics.org